(a) whether it is a fact that the price of Indian coffee has doubled during the last 6 to 8 months;

(b) if so, the reasons therefor;

(c) whether it is also a fact that the high international prices give a chance for the Indian coffee industry to boost its export;

(d) if so, the likely export of coffee to different countries during the current year; and

(e) the income likely to be generated from this?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY (SHRI E.V.K.S. ELANGOVAN): (a) and (b) There has been a substantial increase in coffee prices in recent months compared to the overall position last year. This is in view of the global demand and supply position.

(c) The export of Indian coffee is not entirely dependent on international prices of coffee. India in any case exports about 75% of its coffee. The actual export of coffee depends largely on the production and domestic consumption of coffee in the country.

(d) and (e) Export of coffee in the current year is presently estimated to be around 200000 MTs, the value of which is estimated to be around US $ 320 million.
